sayings for a tattoo? and a tattoo design? 10 pts?

What are some good quotes/sayings for a tattoo that aren't that big. I don't want anything stupid or meaningless. Anyone have any good ideas or sites?! Also i want a small (girly tattoo) for my foot or maybe a tattoo for my lower back (haven't decided which i want yet, also the saying will be a seperate tattoo on my wrist or something)! Whoever is first to answer these questions the best ; 10 pts =]
i'm only asking for ideas, that's all? but okay. I looked at alot and i havent found one i truely liked yet.

Vanessa answers:

My favorite quote ever is "Que sera, sera."
My mom used to sing me a song with that in it iand it is really sweet.
It means "What will be, will be" in spanish.

Also, there are some cool Latin quotes that would be fun.
Like, "Amor vincit omnia" Which means Love conquers all.

does anyone know any sayings or designs that i could get as a tattoo under my boob (like miley cyrus)?

im getting a tattoo under my boob like Miley cyrus has, and i need a saying or a design. in english or another language. i want it to kinda mean something, but sound pretty when put together too. thanks so much!:)

Vanessa answers:

My friend has a tattoo under her boob that says "Infinity and beyond.."
I think thats really cute even if it is buzz lightyears catch phrase haha.
If you want it to mean something you should chose something yourself so it's closer to heart.
If someone else choses it's not really gonna mean much to you.

Donald asks...

I need to know the Old Norse translation for "Will not Surrender". I can't find it anywhere online.?

If anyone could offer some other Old Norse Sayings that pertain to freedom, valor, justice, and things of that nature it would be greatly appreciated. I'm looking for some to go along with my tattoo design. Thanks

Vanessa answers:

You need to specify whether the first word in English is I, you, he/she, we or they as this affects the form of the verb. Here are a couple of alternative phrases in Old Norse:

Ek sé svangan mann taka ost.
I see a hungry man take some cheese.

Dvergarnir foera konunginum gylltan baug.
The dwarves bring the king a golden ring.

short small sayings about life and love...really simple ones. i want to get a tattoo on my wrist\'s?

i want to get a tattoo of some kind of wording across the inside of my wrist\'s, but i want each one to say something different...and i also want to get some kind of design done too..like on my feet or arm..nothing too big..i want it to be somethin that has meaning to me but i cant thing of anything creative. could you suggest some questions to ask myself..you know so i can start getting ideas

Vanessa answers:

Think of words that describe one of your most favorite places, people, or things.

Think of a quality you cherish in yourself or someone you love.

If you are religious in any way, consider words or phrases that would reflect your views (for example, if I were to get another tat, I would want Peace, Hope, Love because those are the good things He gave us).

Look up some quotes on life and love online and search through what you find. You might find a phrase you simply fall in love with that describes you perfectly.

That's all I've got. Hope that helps a bit!
